ABOUT ME

EXUBERANCE IS MORE THAN A SOUND. IT IS A TRANSMISSION OF VITALITY, MOVEMENT, AND SOUL.

Gabriel Melchizedek

EXUBERANCE is an Australian-born, DJ and producer crafting high-vibrational dance music inspired by culture, consciousness, and movement.

Blending Afro House, Jackin House, Tech House, and ecstatic dance influences, his sets are immersive journeys - beginning with deep tribal grooves and organic textures before building into feel-good jackin rhythms, peak-time energy, and euphoric club moments.

Having performed at Bali Spirit Festival and ecstatic dance events around the world, EXUBERANCE bridges the worlds of conscious community and modern dancefloor culture.

His breakout jackin house release "House Party in Ubud" on 1980 Recordings gained international traction, charting on Traxsource Jackin House (#18 peak), appearing in What's Hot, Jackin House Featured, New Releases, and Hype Charts while gaining playlist support across Spotify (Spinnin Records + Dimitri Vegas & Like Mike) and international radio.

Under his second alias, Loose Bandit, he also explores UK Drum & Bass and bass music culture.

At the heart of the project is one intention:
create music that moves both body and spirit.
